

Dance Theatre Troupe TO

Artistic Director:
Iva Pavičić

▶▶ TYPE OF WORK

alternative movement theatre

▶▶ ABOUT THE COMPANY

Dance Theatre Troupe TO was founded in 2000. Iva Pavičić, artistic director, choreographer and performer, researches contemporary dance and her own creative potential by working with non-trained performers on her projects. The resulting performances thus rather belong to an alternative movement theatre with a strong sense of visual representation.

▶▶ CURRENT PRODUCTIONS

Backwater or Crone's Porridge

choreography: Iva Pavičić
number of performers: 12

Transformation, an unavoidable process affecting man both on the outside and inside, is reflected in its duality in this performance. Therefore, the performance has two parts, one dealing with the outer and the other with the inner world.

The Strength

concept by: Iva Pavičić
number of performers:
unlimited

Honouring man as an individual as well as humankind as a whole, the performance reflects the wish to express the profound, silent inner strength in an individual, which endlessly grows when united with other people. The performance thus invites a large number of people, performers and others, to take a rope into their hand and walk silently in line through the streets of a town, experiencing a new insight to the known.

▶▶ REVIEW EXTRACT

Over thirty minutes of the performance...enchants (the audience) with visual impressions of the fluid shifting of bodies and shadows...The scene flows continuously, changes, dissolves and rebuilds.
